Social skills and competences	- Team work: I have worked in various types of teams from research teams to national and international - Mediating skills: I work on the borders between young people, youth trainers and experienced researchers, for example running annually 2 day workshops on European Affairs at West University of Timisoara in the framework of the programme "To Think and Act As a European", and my continued work on youth training programmes within the university. - Negotiation skills: In the cooperation relations with prestigious higher education European institutions, I negotiated over 100 bilateral mobility accords for students and teachers in the Lifelong Learning Programme of the European Commission - Erasmus / Socrates. As a delegate, I successfully participated to several official actions both internally and on an European / international level. - Intercultural skills: I am experienced at working in a European and International dimension such as being a diplomat with the Romanian Ministry of Foreign Affairs and UNESCO Bucharest office; in the same time I participated in several programmes in the framework of the regional initiatives organised by regions from Romania, Hungary and Serbia; as a Visiting Professor, I held a wide experience in regions as Romania, Poland, France, Italy and Belgium. - Managerial skills: As a county counsellor, I have managed the Development and Reform Commission, where I developed managerial abilities; as head of The School of High Comparative European Studies (SISEC) from West University of Timisoara, I developed the institutions and improved the quality of the educational offer, having awarded the first Jean Monnet Chair in Romania and then the first Jean Monnet European Centre of Excellence.
Organisational skills and competences	- Since 2005 I have organised the conferences on international migration and the labour mobility. - As a regional representative, I have organised actions in the framework of the European Movement. Under the motto: "To Think and Act As a European", I organized a series of annual conferences from 1996 to 2006, which were a great success; with such occasions, there have been trained also representatives of local institutions (City Hall, Prefecture and County Council and several NGOs and organizations of revolutionaries). - As a county counselor at the Timis County Council in two legislatures (1992-2000), I have represented Timis Department in the Council of Europe (1992-1996).
